ALL SORTS.

Don't miss the entertainment at the Opera House to-night.

Don't forget Si Plunkard Tuesday night at the Opera House.

The Grand Jury was not able to do any business at its last meeting on account of the absence of Mr. Reynolds.

Actresses in Minnesota are now prohibited from wearing tights. They ought to pass a law there prohibiting women from plumping their legs with pads and sawdust.

The Board of County Commissioners of Elko County have, by advice of the District Attorney, issued a proclamation that they will not issue bonds as provided in the Act of the Legislature for building a railroad in that county.

The Carson Rod and Gun Club will hold a meeting Saturday evening, April 11th 1891, at 8:30 P. M., at Geo. T. Mills' office. All members requested to be present; urgent business to be attended to. H. M. DORSEY, Secy.

Missing Man.

ED. APPEAL-I should like to inquire through your paper if any of its readers know H. L. Burk. My brother Henry Lybrook Burk, let his home in the State of Michigan many years ago since which time we have heard nothing from him. We conjecture that he is in the mountains. Information leading to his whereabouts will be thankfully received and rewarded. Bozeman, Montana.

THOMAS BURK.

Who Was to Blame?

Some weeks ago the Water Company notified the city that it had laid its pipes to the upper end of town and if the city wanted an extra water plug there for fires, the Company would make no extra charge. The city delayed the work and Mr. Cagwin's house burned.

The City Trustees would do well to get that plug in as soon as possible.

That Rich Find.

In yesterday's issue we mentioned a rich find one mile south of Spring City by Bell and Butch. Two samples of the ore were assayed by Mr. W. O'Hara with the following result:

No. 1, gold $10.55 silver $1.19S 58 total $11.74
No. 2, gold $4.15 silver $48.84, total $52.99.

This is a lode parties have been trying to find for quite a number of years, as rich float has been found on several occasions upon the hillside by different parties. At one time Alex. Middleton spent the entire Summer in tracing the float and trying to find the ledge, but without success, and it remained for Joe Butch to be the fortunate individual. The find will be apt to create another boom for Spring City, and will be an encouragement for the new company that has but recently come into possession of the Paradise mines to push their reduction works to completion-the members of which are expected to arrive in Winnemucca in a short time to commence operations. We predicted but a short time ago that we were on the eve of revival, and everything leads us to believe that we were correct.-Silver State.

For the next 60 days I will sell Merchants Pipes, Brier Pipes and all other kinds for cost; also Knives, Razors, etc. I have a small line of stationery which will be sold for cost. I have 30,000 cigars that I will sell at wholesale prices by the box; also 300 lbs. of smoking and chewing tobacco and many other things too numerous to mention.

My goods will be all marked so that all will be treated alike. Goods must be sold; come one come all. m14 G. S. HAWKINS.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9, 1891. Not knowing how much space you have at command, I will not trespass upon it further.

"Kid."

FOLSOM ACQUITTED.

People can now Bang the Sheriff in the Jaw.

Yesterday Frank Folsom was tried in the Justice Court for assault and battery.

The evidence showed that during the Stevenson trial, he was standing up in the Court-room leaning up against the railing when the Sheriff asked him to sit down, or go out. He declined to do either, when the Sheriff caught him by the arm.

Judge Rising in the bench, seeing trouble brewing, ordered Folsom to obey the Sheriff.

The Sheriff says he asked him to sit down inside the rail and motioned to a chair. Folsom says the officer threatened to throw him out.

He finally sat down and then went down street, and meeting Bottsford asked him what he meant by insulting him and applied an abusive epithet.

The Sheriff then caught hold of him as he says, to arrest him for vulgar language when Folsom hit him in the jaw and knocked him down.

The defense said that Bottsford did not tell him what he was arrested for when he offered the epithets to the Sheriff and that his failure to do so warranted Folsom in defending himself with the supposition that the officer was committing an assault.

The prosecution held that it was an unwarranted assault on a peace officer and premeditated because Folsom had asked some one if he had trouble with the Sheriff could he have a jury trial. Receiving an affirmative answer he had gone back and committed the assault.

The jury were out about twenty minutes and brought in a verdict of acquittal.

A Fraud.

During the Session, Ed Phillips one of the attaches of the Senate, applied to the APPEAL office to sell Homographic Charts.

After selling the charts he collected the money and skipped out. The lost to the office is but a trifle compared to the loss of self respect and character to Phillips, who parted with his reputation for a few dollars.

He borrowed money right and left and generally did up everybody he dealt with. He is now in Reno with his eye peeled for fresh victims. The Eureka delegation shoved him on to the legislature.

A Cool Robbery.

On Thursday evening James Conroy, who deals faro for Al White in Reno, was making up his cash account about midnight, when a masked man confronting him with a six-shooter, lifted two sacks of $400 each from the table and disappeared. The officers got the man not long afterwards as he was boarding the train, and recovered $270 of the money.
